

Submission guidelines

When submitting a manuscript to AMAPN, certain guidelines and requirements must be followed:

1. The manuscript should be written in English. To ensure compliance with technical requirements, please use our template file, which can be found at: AMAPN_template.tex (AMAPN_template.pdf). Always make sure to use the latest version of the template file.
2. We expect the submission to be in PDF format, generated from our LaTeX template file. Please send the file to amapn@nye.hu with the indication of the area listed on the AMAPN website to which the manuscript belongs. All correspondence should be directed to this email address.
3. AMAPN publishes papers that do not exceed 16 pages. Please note that exception to this restriction may be granted in special cases, with the consent of the editor-in-chief.
4. Depending on the reviewer's report, revisions to the manuscript may be requested. The revised version will then be sent back to the reviewer. Once your manuscript is professionally accepted for publication, we will request the LaTeX source file using the AMAPN template file. We will then let you know if the manuscript is technically acceptable or if it requires changes.
